Arizona Fall League Announces 2007 Schedule

Phoenix, Arizona — The Arizona Fall League announces its 2007 schedule for its 16th season, a slate that begins with three games on Tuesday, October 9 and concludes with the league championship game on Saturday, November 17 at Scottsdale Stadium.

The six-team league, owned and operated by the Major League Baseball Clubs, plays six days per week (Monday-Saturday) in five Cactus League stadiums (Mesa, Peoria, Phoenix, Scottsdale, Surprise) in the Phoenix metropolitan area.

A seventh squad, Team USA, will prepare for international competition with one game against each Fall League team beginning October 25 that will count in the standings. Team USA, after its final Fall League contest on November 1, will depart Arizona to compete in the 2007 International Baseball Federation World Cup in Taiwan from November 6-18. Team USA will be managed by former Major League player and manager Davey Johnson. Team USA's two "home" games in the Fall League will be played at Scottsdale Stadium.

Fall League games begin at 12:35 p.m. and 7:05 p.m. Night games also will be played on Mondays for the first time in Fall League history. All games during the World Series will be day games. Sundays again will be the league's off day.

The Phoenix Desert Dogs seek their third consecutive Arizona Fall League championship this season with players from the Baltimore, Chicago White Sox, Minnesota, Oakland, and Pittsburgh organizations.

The complete 2007 Arizona Fall League schedule follows. All times are local.
